

EKULT GROUP LTD
MODERN SLAVERY AND HUMAN TRAFFICKING POLICY [EG-JP-]
Issued Date: 30.09.2016

Introduction

Modern slavery is a crime and a violation of fundamental human rights. It takes various forms, such as slavery, servitude, forced and compulsory labour and human trafficking, all of which have in common the deprivation of a person's liberty by another in order to exploit them for personal or commercial gain.

Ekult Group Ltd adopt a zero- tolerance approach to modern slavery and are committed to acting ethically and with integrity in all its business dealings and relationships and to implementing systems and controls that are designed to ensure that modern slavery is not taking place anywhere in our own business or across our supply chain.

The company will ensure transparency within its organisation and with suppliers of goods and services to the organisation consistent with disclosure obligations under the Modern Slavery Act 2015. As part of our contracting processes, we are committed to incorporating controls against the use of forced, compulsory or trafficked labour, or anyone held in slavery or servitude, whether adults or children.

Ekult Group Ltd expect its supply chain to hold their own supply chain to similar controls. Our supply chain approval processes will incorporate a review of the controls implemented by the supplying and subcontracting organisations.

Responsibility

Ekult Group Ltd Directors take responsibility for ensuring this policy complies with the Companies legal and ethical obligations. They are also responsible for ensuring that all those that fall within the scope of the policy comply with it.

Scope

This policy applies to all persons working for Ekult Group Ltd or on our behalf of the Company in any capacity, including employees at all levels, directors, officers, agency workers, seconded workers, volunteers, agents, contractors, external consultants, third-party representatives and business partners.

Compliance

The Company will not knowingly support or deal with any business involved in slavery or human trafficking. The prevention, detection and reporting of modern slavery in any part of Ekult Group Ltd or its supply chain is the responsibility of all those working for us or under our control. Employees and personnel working on behalf of Ekult Group Ltd are encouraged to raise concerns about any issue or suspicion of modern slavery in any part of the business or supply chain of any supplier tier at the earliest possible stage.

Ekult Group Ltd aims to encourage openness and will support anyone who raises genuine concerns in good faith under this policy. We are committed to ensuring no one suffers any detrimental treatment as a result of reporting in good faith their suspicion that modern slavery of whatever form is or may be taking place in any part of our own business or in any of our supply chains.

Awareness

Training on this policy, and on the risk faced by Ekult Group Ltd from modern slavery in its supply chain, will form part of the induction process for all individuals who work for us, and regular training will be provided as necessary.

Our zero-tolerance approach to modern slavery will be communicated to all suppliers, contractors and business partners at the outset of our business relationship with them and reinforced as appropriate thereafter.
